STAT

Area of Coverage: China

Subjects Covered: Economy of China, plans and fulfillment of plans.

Scholarship Evaluation: Popular consumption

Review: Outlines the general principles of the New Democracy as laid down by Mao Tse-tung. The one chapter devoted to the new democratic economy describes the five components of the new economy, the principles of mutual benefit to labor and capital, rent and interest reduction programs, land reform, the program to exterminate landlords and bureaucratic capitalists, etc.

Gives little new information on the Chinese Communist economy of 1949.
